

I strongly object to the use of cellular phones on aircraft. I think it would create a very uncomfortable environment and cause undue stress, noise, disturbance and tension and highly recommend that this is not implemented.